ARE YOU LOOKING FOR A JOB?

Are you looking for a job and can't find one? Are you among the 13% of Tuscaloosans out of work? Then you may need to sharpen up your "job finding skills." Only the best are successful in finding employment in today's market.

Try Shelton's Career Development Day this Wednesday, March 31, to see if you can pick up some information to help you find a new job or even a better job. The one-day seminar begins at 9 a.m. and will continue until 3 p.m.

The Career Development Day is sponsored by the Job Placement Bureau, Cooperative Education Department and the Afro American Cultural Association.

The schedule for the day includes:

9 a.m. Coffee, registration
9:15 a.m. "Looking for a Job," Lucy Kubiszyn
9:30 a.m. "Writing a Resume," Judy Barker
10:30 a.m. "What to Wear While Job Hunting," Leska Graves, Gayfers Dept. Store
11 a.m. "Job Opportunities in Tuscaloosa," Steve King
Panel of speakers: Tom Quinn, Tuscaloosa Chamber of Commerce; John Lasko, Parisian, Inc.; Helena Bane, University of Alabama
1-3 p.m. Interviewing techniques, Wynora Freeman, Bessie German, Ruby Miller

DON'T FORGET THE MARCH MEETING OF THE SHELTON STATE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION TO BE HELD WEDNESDAY, MARCH 31, IN THE AUDITORIUM. WE HOPE YOU'LL JOIN THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION AS IT IS OPEN TO ANYONE WHO HAS ATTENDED SHELTON STATE FOR AT LEAST ONE QUARTER.

SS DAYS AT UNIVERSITY MALL SCHEDULED

Shelton State will once again sponsor Shelton State Days at University Mall on Friday and Saturday, April 16 and 17.

There will be exhibits, talent show, style show, aerobic dancing, karate demonstration, clown and magical chemistry act, and lots of fun things that have made this week-end so popular.

We hope all groups, clubs and organizations connected with Shelton State Community College will sponsor a booth, exhibit, or table. Any group interested in participating should contact Tom Umphrey or Lucy Kubiszyn immediately.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION TO SPONSOR AUCTION

The Alumni Association will sponsor an antique auction and garage sale at 12 noon April 17 (Saturday) at University Mall in conjunction with Shelton State Days at University Mall. The proceeds from the auction will go towards providing a scholarship to a student to Shelton State Junior College.

If you have any furniture, appliances, household items, good toys or books you would like to donate, we'll be glad to give you a receipt for your income tax deductions.

More detailed information on the auction will follow later.

MORE NEWS ON HISTORICAL FOLK FESTIVAL

Dig down in your trunk, basement or attic, faculty and staff. You are being asked to dress up for the folk festival on Wednesday, April 7. There will be a contest for the best costume and the winner will receive a "breakfast for two" at the Waysider restaurant.

There will also be "dinner on the grounds," so to speak, that day for faculty, staff, and exhibitors at noon. The barbecue will be furnished and everyone is asked to bring a side dish.

Shelton voice instructor Everett McCorvey has signed a contract with the Whitewater Opera Company in Richmond, Indiana to perform one of the principal roles in an operetta by Jacques Offenbach entitled The Grand Duchess of Gerolstein. April 22-24.

McCorvey holds his bachelor's and master's degrees from the University of Alabama and was named last year the national winner in the National Federation of Music Clubs student auditions. He was also a scholarship student to the Aspen Music Festival in Aspen, Colorado.

McCorvey is a student of Ed White.

ATTENTION RTI STUDENTS

STUDENTS PLANNING TO ATTEND RTI FOR THE FALL QUARTER 1982 MUST HAVE THEIR APPLICATION AT RTI BY APRIL 1, 1982. FOR ADDITIONAL INFORMATION CONTACT MARY ANN Z THOMAS IN THE COUNSELING AREA.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT NEEDS APPLICANTS

We must have more players (tennis) in this school than have signed up for intramural tennis! If you like to play and have some game experience, talk to Mrs. Graves immediately. It won't take too much of your time and you will really enjoy this opportunity to compete.

FILM FESTIVAL SCHEDULED

Five award-winning films will be shown during Shelton State's Historical Folk Festival on Wednesday, April 7, as part of the college's observance of Heritage Week in Tuscaloosa. The films will be shown continuously from 2:30-6:30 p.m. in the music room. These films have been obtained from the Center for Southern Folklore, Memphis, Tennessee.

The films are:
 "Four Women Artist" - An intimate look at the memories, traditions and visions guiding the art and lives of novelist Eudora Welty, quilter Pecolia Warner, embroiderer Ethel Mohamed and painter Theora Hamblett....Ann Arbor Film Festival, American Film Festival, Margaret Mead Film Festival, American Film Institute. Jr. High-Adult 25 minutes

"Hush Hoggies Hush: Tom Johnson's Praying Pigs" A witty film about a remarkable hobby-teaching pigs to pray before eating.Cine Golden Eagle, Sinking Creek Film Celebration, New York Filmmakers. Jr. High-Adult..... 4 minutes.

"Black Delta Religion" A jubilant baptismal procession through Delta Cotton field and a santified urban service where a woman is seized by the spirit and performs a religious dance....Robert Flaherty Film Seminar, American Anthropological Association, Margaret Mead Film Festival, High School-Adult...15 minutes.

"Gravel Springs Fife and Drum" A compelling and award-winning portrait of Othar Turner, his music and his role in rural Mississippi folk society...Cine Golden Eagle, Chicago International Film Festival, Sinking Creek Film Celebration, Robert Flaherty Film Seminar. Grade 4-Adult....10 minutes.

"Alabama Departure" A poetic film both evocative and winning. Images are of land, water, and an old man to whom the film repeatedly returns. He speaks of high tone Christians, funerals for dogs and in the final show he plays an organ singing "go home to die no more.".....American Film Festival, John F. Kennedy Center for Performing Arts. 9 minutes.

AROUND SHELTON STATE

It's recruiting time for high school students and Dean Umphrey and others are busy these days telling potential college students the many advantages of attending Shelton State Junior College.. He'll be at Hillcrest High School Monday and Westend Christian and Tuscaloosa County High School Tuesday. Shelton will also be represented Thursday at Central High West's Health Career Day.....And on Friday Dr. Sherer and Dean Umphrey will be at Montevallo working on scholarship there for a Shelton student.
